MARIO BERNARDI is perhaps best known as the founding conductor of the National Arts Centre Orchestra and the guiding spirit behind its meteoric rise from 1969 to 1982. The group has travelled extensively throughout Canada, the United States, Mexico and Europe and has recorded for CBC and CBS Records. It is considered one of the best ensembles of its kind in the world.

Before 1969 Mario Bernardi spent six years in London with Sadler's Wells Opera (now the English National Opera), starting out as a répétiteur and ending up ('66 to '69) as one of its two Music Directors. His operatic repertoire is vast - some 60 works, but he is equally at home in the symphonic field. He has conducted, among others, the orchestras of Chicago, Indianapolis, Pittsburgh, Warsaw, the BBC, London Symphony Orchestra, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the Swiss Romande and all major Canadian orchestras. Recently he conducted two productions for the San Francisco Opera and made his debut with the San Francisco Symphony to high critical acclaim. In 1984 he will make his debut at the Metropolitan Opera. He has just been appointed Principal Conductor of the CBC Vancouver Orchestra and will take over as Music Director of the Calgary Philharmonic in 1984/85.

LINDA IPPOLITO is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music's Special Course Scholarship Program, where she was a student of Boris Berlin.

During that time, she performed in many solo and chamber recitals and in master classes for such eminent artists as Leon Fleischer, Guido Agosti, Kendall Taylor, and the late Gina Bachauer.

She has been a consistent winner in the National Finals of the Canadian Music Competitions, and is the 1983 winner of the Kiwanis piano trophy.

She is presently a first year student at the Faculty where she studies with Mme. Irina Kugucheva.

We at the Faculty of Music are proud of our program and feel that over the years we have established a standard of excellence placing us among the finest musical institutions in North America. Although the Faculty of Music (and the University) is funded by government(s), these funds do not provide the full measure of support necessary to keep our Faculty at the forefront of Schools of Music. Historically, the generosity of private individuals has had a significant impact on the Faculty of Music, its facilities and programs. For example, the number of entrance scholarships has, through your generosity, almost tripled in the last four years. If you wish to help us in our work we would be pleased to deposit your contribution in our "Scholarship & Bursary" or "Instrument Renewal" fund. Please make cheques payable to: University of Toronto, Faculty of Music. A receipt suitable for tax purposes will be provided.
